

PCC Small Business Center receives honor

Monday, January 5, 2015

0 Comments | Leave a Comment

Print E-Mail

Reddit More

Like 0 Tweet

The Pitt Community College Small Business Center's effort to prepare individuals for self-employment has resulted in a Centers of Excellence Award for innovation from the N.C. Small Business Center Network.

PCC Small Business Center Director Jim Ensor accepted the award during the N.C. Small Business Advisors of North Carolina Professional Development Conference in Greensboro.

Story continues below advertisement

Children's Montessori School, Inc.
Experience the joy of learning

Kindergarten, Why Wait?
IF YOUR CHILD WILL BE 5 ON OR BEFORE AUGUST 31ST, BEGIN KINDERGARTEN IN JUNE OR JULY AND CONTINUE IN SEPTEMBER

Goals for Montessori Kindergarten
Achieve Academic Excellence, Creative Thinking and Global Understanding

Benita Mattheis | 100 Hungate Drive, Greenville, NC
252-355-0514 or 252-258-2506

Ensor said the Small Business Center received the award for its "Entrepreneurship in the Classroom" program, which was started in 2012.

For the complete article, please pick up a copy of The Daily Reflector. Current home delivery and electronic edition subscribers may log in to access this article at no charge. To become a subscriber, please click here or contact Customer Service at (252) 329-9505 .

Login or register to post comments

0 Comments | Leave a Comment

NEXT STORY: ATLANTIC WIRELESS DONATES TO CAROLINA PREGNANCY CENTER

ALSO OF INTEREST

Mclroy stumbles in Fla.

What's hot in outdoor furniture

$1 million winner lands another $200K

VIDEO: Sledding in Greenville, Feb. 25

Add comment